

Dream Defenders has won Best 3d Animation at The Asia Image Apollo Awards 2013 Presentation

SINGAPORE, 18th June 2013 - Dream Defenders has won Best 3d Animation at the Asia Image Apollo Awards 2013 Presentation. Taking place on 18th June at the Marina Bay Sands held alongside BroadcastAsia. Out of 239 submissions received, 30 entries made the final cut after careful review by a panel of judges known for their extensive technical knowledge, critically acclaimed creativity, and years of experience in the media and entertainment industry. The results were tabulated and audited by international auditing firm PriceWaterhouseCoopers.

The Apollo Awards is an initiative aimed at honouring the best in Asia Pacific's production and post-production industries. With a jury that combines extensive technical knowledge, critically acclaimed creativity, and years of experience in the media and entertainment industry, this is the award for production and post-production artists in the Asia Pacific region.

