

➡ For Immediate Release

Shellhut Entertainment and Tiny Island Productions bring Dream Defenders to Thailand 'Channel 3' Family

BANGKOK, 2nd July 2014 - This July, Thai audiences are in for an animation treat, as the award winning Dream Defenders animated series will finally debut on Channel 3 Family, one of Thailand's largest television network. Produced by Tiny Island Productions and distributed by Shellhut Entertainment in Thailand, this marks yet another exciting collaboration between the 2 animation companies. Shellhut Entertainment and Tiny Island Productions have previously worked together on Sheldon the TV Series, one of Thailand's most famous animated TV series which has been shown on NBC Qubo and France 5 and is now distributed by DHX Media worldwide. This time, a major campaign will be launched to distribute and publicize Dream Defenders in Thailand.

Dream Defenders tells the story of Zane and Zoey, twins who defend the real world from nightmare monsters from the Dreamworlds. Aimed at kids 6-12, the 22min x 26 episode TV series features incredible gadgets, uniquely designed creatures and fantastic dreamworlds. Fully created and produced by Tiny Island Productions, one of Singapore's top animation studios, its story credits include some of L.A.'s top writers such as Eric and Julia Lewald whose credits include the hit X-Men and Gargoyles animated series.

The show made its debut on the other side of the world in America where it premiered in stereoscopic 3D format on 3net, the 3D channel formed by Sony, Discovery and IMAX, becoming one of its top kids program. Since then, it has gone on to win the Asia Image Apollo Awards 2013 for Best 3D Animation. With Dreamworks Classics as its main distributor, it has reached out to more than 60 countries across the globe including Germany (Super RTL), Planeta Junior as well as on OTT platforms such as Hulu.

Dream Defender makes its Thailand debut on 7th July this year at Prime Time 18:00-18:30hour on Free-to-air Ch 3 Family.

About Tiny Island Productions

Tiny Island Productions has become Singapore's leading Stereoscopic 3D CG animation production company. Established in 2002 and based in cosmopolitan Singapore, the company creates, manages and markets quality content for the global CG animation market. The company had also previously worked with international distributor Classic Media (Dreamworks Classic) and Thai-based producing company, Shellhut Entertainment, on a CG animated series, Sheldun that was aired on major networks including NBC USA and France 5. One of its latest deal is Tiny Island's stereoscopic-3D CG Animated series 'Dream Defenders' to make American debut on 3net. (Joint Venture 24/ 7 3D Network from Sony, Discovery and IMAX) and on Hulu. Dream Defenders has also won the Asia Image Apollo Awards 2013 for Best 3d Animation. Other earlier deals inked include a development deal with Los-Angeles based Saban Entertainment Group (SEG), with SEG providing development resources for a CG animated series. In 2012, the company completed the all new Ben 10 CGI Telemovie in both standard and stereoscopic 3d format for Cartoon Network. The film has won the Best 3D Animated Program award at the Asian Television Awards 2012 as well as the Gold Award for Best Movie Campaign in the 2012 ProMax Awards.

In July 2013, the company has signed the first Singapore Korea co production animation deal with South Korean animation production house Electric Circus. Together they will produce the CGI action-adventure series G-Fighter (26 x 22 minutes) supported by SBA, KOCCA, EBS, SK Broadband and CJ E&M.

For Further Information Please Contact:

Tiny Island Productions – contact@tinyisland.net

Tiny Island Website

Dream Defenders Website